

Spelling List 23

pollen	chrysanthemum	phlox sequoia	hyacinth	wisteria azalea	petunia	pistil poinsettia	lilac	oxygen camellia	dahlia	carbon dioxide dandelion	fuchsia	daisy orchid	hydrangea	Zechariah (Zech.)
daffodil	peony	Malachi (Mal.) photosynthesis: the process by which green plants use sunlight to change water and carbon dioxide into sugar botany: the scientific study of plants chlorophyll: the green substance found in green plants which enables them to make their own food embryo: a tiny plant inside a seed pollination: the moving of pollen to the pistils of flowers by wind or insect germinate: to sprout conifer: a cone-bearing tree deciduous: a name for trees which lose their leaves lichen: a mosslike plant that grows on trees and rocks liken: to compare similarities