

Spelling List 34

| | | |
|--------------|--------------|-------------|
| preposterous | aloud | reign |
| attendant | postgraduate | vein |
| occupant | whole | catalog |
| assistant | medicinal | national |
| chord | aisle | information |
| patience | infuriate | too |
| communism | incorporate | |

posthumous: given or done after a person's death penchant: a fondness, liking, or preference egotism: excessive reference to oneself; self-conceit criticism: an evaluation of good and bad points principal: most important; chief; head of school principle: a fundamental belief consultant: counselor; advisor straight: containing no angles or turns cataract: a large waterfall cataclysm: a violent flood; earthquake, or other sudden change in the earth accidental: happening by chance they're: the contraction for "they are"

political: pertaining to government inducted: placed formally into a group optical: pertaining to the eyes