

Spelling List 4

asterisk	Drowned	subpoena disastrous	interrupted	subconscious comprehensive	disguised	substitute buoyancy	interested	diagonal frequency	whispered	diaphragm autonomous	persuaded	physician immersion	subordinate commercial*: having to do with business or trade commodity: a useful product or service contrite: feeling deeply sorry for having sinned conceit: pride condemn: to declare guilty; to sentence condescend: to come down to another's mental or social level deficiency: shortage; inadequacy autoimmune: the immune system's attack on the body bibliography: a list of books and articles on a particular subject inoculate: to inject a vaccine into a living organism to prevent disease immigrant: a person who comes into a new country to live imminent: about to happen; close at hand amphibious: able to live on land and in water contradict: to say the opposite suburb: a community on the outskirts of a city