

Spelling List 2

automobile: a self-moving vehicle autograph: a signature automatic: self-acting autoimmune: the immune system's attack on the body autocrat: an absolute ruler autonomous: independent, self-governing bibliography: a list of books and articles on a particular subject biblical: according to God's word incision: a cut inject: to force in (usually by a needle) inoculate: to inject a vaccine into a living organism to prevent disease incinerate: to burn to ashes inherit: to receive something from an ancestor at his death inhabit: to dwell or live in a place implore: to beseech; beg import: to bring in from another country impact: a collision; the effect of something implant: to instill; to graft into the body immersion: a plunging into a liquid implement: a tool; a utensil immigrant: a person who comes into a new country to live imminent: about to happen; close at hand irrigation: the supplying of land with water by using ditches or sprinklers drowned: died underwater guided: directed interrupted: stopped for a time disguised: changed or hid the appearance fastened: attached; secured attempted: tried; made an effort used: put to use; not new celebrated: observed a special occasion with ceremonies and festivities interested: showing curiosity about something whispered: spoke in a soft voice imagined: formed a picture or idea in one's mind persuaded: convinced by argument or pleading