

Spelling List 13

gratitude	disappoint	Mediterranean reassure	affluent	beguiled repossess	disembark	analysis explanatory	disobedience	analogy circulatory	prayerful	specify laboratory	European	liquefy maneuver	electrician dehydrate: to remove water from hydrophobia: an abnormal fear of water congratulate: to express pleasure over someone's success renovate: to make like new again contradictory: opposite; contrary predatory: living by feeding other animals fluctuate: to change continually; to waver fluently: easily and rapidly, as in speaking or writing disentangle: to loosen; to untangle manipulated: handled skillfully or cleverly bountiful: plentiful; more than enough remittance: money sent by mail intermittent: stopping (leaving off), then starting again medieval: pertaining to the Middle Ages mediocre: ordinary