

Spelling List 30

prodigy: a marvel; especially a child with amazing talent or genius procedure: a way of doing something procrastinate: to put off doing procure: to get profession: the act of claiming a belief before the public progress: to move forward righteousness: upright conduct; virtue bitterness: harsh taste; unpleasant feeling business: one's occupation or trade frankness: the act of speaking plainly and truthfully regardless of others' opinions idleness: the state of having nothing to do; laziness offensiveness: the state of being disagreeable; disgusting actions fierceness: wildness and rage; cruelty readiness: the state of being prepared; promptness specialist: one who studies or works in a specific area journalist: one who reports the news humorist: one who makes others laugh; a comedian colonist: a settler economist: one who knows much about financial affairs nationalist: one who stands for his country; a patriot florist: one who arranges and sells flowers tourist: one who travels for pleasure accurate: correct

amusement: entertainment disappear: vanish

covetous: greedy

etiquette: manners

hazard: peril

consequence: effect

substantial: considerable precise: exact

circular: round

innocent: guiltless

vanity: conceit

zeal: eagerness