

Spelling List 6

fortify: to make strong or secure fortress: a permanent stronghold for defense fortitude: strength to bear misfortune effort: a conscious putting forth of energy geode: a limestone rock with crystals inside geology: the study of the earth through rocks geometry: the branch of mathematics involving the measuring of shapes bisect: to divide into two equal parts bicycle: a vehicle with two wheels (one behind another) binoculars: field glasses (used by both eyes) biennial: occurring every two years or lasting for two years (as plants) triangle: a three-sided figure triceps: a large muscle at the back of the upper arm trilingual: having or expressed in three languages tripod: a three-legged stand; easel triune: being three in one disturbance: something that bothers defiance: non-cooperation; rebelliousness; deliberate disobedience acceptance: the act of receiving; approval guidance: the act of directing assistance: help or support resistance: the act of opposing hindrance: something that gets in the way allegiance: devotion; loyalty repentance: sorrow for having done wrong and a desire to correct it abundance: much more than enough performance: the giving of a play, concert, circus, or other show attendance: the act of being present appearance: the act of coming into sight allowance: money given for a certain purpose resemblance: likeness endurance: the power to keep on without giving up appliance: a machine or electrical device assurance: confidence; certainty insurance: a system of protection from loss