

Spelling List 11

manual: made, done, or used by the hands manage: to control or direct manufacture: to make a product mandatory: required manicure: a treatment for the hands and fingernails maneuver: to guide skillfully manipulated: handled skillfully or cleverly fluctuate: to change continually; to waver fluently: easily and rapidly, as in speaking or writing influence: the power to affect others without making an effort affluent: having wealth; rich influenza: a contagious disease caused by a virus; flu disgraceful: shameful disembark: to get off a ship discord: a lack of harmony or agreement disfigure: to ruin or destroy the appearance of disappoint: to sadden by not doing what is expected disease: a sickness disobedience: a refusal to obey disentangle: to loosen; to untangle intersection: a place where two or more roads meet intermingle: to mix together intercept: to take or seize something on its way from one place to another international: between nations intermission: a pause between the parts of a performance neglectful: careless; irresponsible distasteful: unpleasant; offensive bountiful: plentiful; more than enough prayerful: praying often eventful: full of outstanding events

European: relating to Europe

Canadian: relating to Canada

American: relating to America electrician: a person who installs or repairs electrical apparatus dietitian: a specialist in planning meals or diets